

Leanne Habib

Leanne Habib is the CEO of Premium Strata and was appointed to the SCA (NSW) Board in 2024. With a distinguished career spanning over 25 years, she is a licensed Strata and Community Manager as well as a Real Estate Managing Agent. Leanne has redefined premium strata service by developing a client-centred approach through her years in senior roles at top-tier agencies. Her commitment to service ensures client expectations are not only met but consistently exceeded.

Leanne and her team have become specialists in managing complex buildings, with Premium Strata recognised as a leading expert in handling challenging schemes. This expertise is showcased in the successful management of high-profile properties known for their intricacies and frequently mentioned in the media, these properties demand more than routine oversight—they require strong leadership, strategic planning, and advanced problem-solving skills.

In addition to her role on the SCA (NSW) Board, Leanne actively participates in industry events and forums. She also serves as a board member of Australian Apartment Advocacy (AAA) and contributes to LookUpStrata, driving initiatives to address strata queries and clarify legislation, bridging the gap between owners and the industry.
