

Rod Smith

Rod's career commenced in corporate finance and taxation, working in big four accounting before moving into the property industry. Rod started his career in strata in 2003, where he joined a small Strata Management firm in Sydney.

Rod is the Managing Director and Founder of The Strata Collective, an award winning Medium Size Strata Management Business located in the CBD of Sydney. Specialising in the management of prestigious and complex strata schemes, community associations and building management committees, Rod brings a high level of technical experience to his team and clients.

Rod holds an Accounting / Finance degree from UNSW and is a level 4 Fellow accredited Strata Manager in NSW. He is a member of the SCA NSW Board (appointed July 2024), the SCA NSW Policy and Legislative Sub Committee and the Urban Development Industry of Australia (UDIA) Strata and Building Regulations Sub Committees.